

Northwest Tech releases 2014-15 men's basketball schedule

July 16, 2014 / Basketball

The Northwest Tech men's basketball team has released its schedule for the 2014-15 season. Among the biggest additions to this year's schedule is a pair of home classics for the Mavericks, including the season opener on October 31, one of fourteen home contests for Northwest Tech.

A few of the highlights from this year's schedule include a return trip to the Sports Arena in Hutchinson where the Mavs will face the Region VI perennial power Blue Dragons, the only Region VI team on the regular season schedule for Northwest Tech. Once again, the Mavs will spend their Thanksgiving holiday playing ball in Casper, Wyoming at a three day classic and round out the season with six of their final seven games at home in the Max Jones Fieldhouse.

Listen live to Northwest Tech basketball on 102.5 KKCI-FM and online at www.goodlandsports.com or download the tunein app (keyword: KKCI) to catch all the action wherever you happen to be when the Mavs take the floor.
